2021 Edition

This is one of those rare, banned books from a century ago which has been since “memory-holed” to continue the Orwellian parlance, and for good reason, as it presents and paints an uncomfortable picture for those who presently continue their biblical mission to dominate and rule over the world according to their biblical prophecy:

“For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you shall perish, And those nations shall be utterly ruined.”

This pamphlet is dedicated to all of the victims who have suffered terribly in their efforts to bring forth the age-old Jewish Question to the forefront of the sleeping public’s conscience.

You are gone, but never forgotten, and your memory will continue to live on. May you all rest in peace, and be blessed in heaven.

Author's Preface

These few serious pages of the history of today and maybe tomorrow and the day after tomorrow, which appeared in almost no change in the Sunday issues of our excellent, true and heroic Christian Hungarian Daily, 1922. November 5, 1922, I published it and made it available to my Christian Hungarian brothers and sisters because my truths had a great momentary effect at that time, which came to me with countless gratitude from all sides, even from our Hungarian brethren who were expelled and cunarded [Cunard Line shipping company] by the Jews to America. and a letter of appreciation proves, but these truths, among the frictions of overlapping events, have since disappeared from memory and public consciousness ever since, and although my truths have been proved by the events that have taken place since then to the last letter:

they did not exert the profound influence I expected and called upon on the formation of the public spirit, the conviction of the masses.

I had seen and recognized the traitors since 1915, in the flare-up of a terrible world-storm; the role of world Jewry in the world war, and I pointed out the truth, which was not even noticed or even doubted at that time, that it was hidden behind the rumble of cannons and the click of propellers (see Budapest News, February 18 and 19, 1916. c) in fact, the struggle between cultures and world-views is going on, where selfishness versus self-sacrifice, hate with human love, individualism with altruism. In the second post of my same article, I said word for word:

If an unpredictable and utterly uncontrollable internal betrayal, at the last minute, does not tip the balance of possibilities in favour of the secret forces tied up in the yanthole, we must win.

Under the circumstances at the time, two years before the “internal betrayal” that actually took place, in the Budapest Newspaper, I think it was impossible for me to speak more clearly.

The Budapest News found my war articles at the time so different from the general perception that I always had to mark them with my full name. (see No. 127 of 1915, No. 49 of 1916, No. 17, No. 177 and 178, where I announced the Russian Jewish [Bolshevik] Revolution nine months in advance. No. 307 and No. 321 of 1917. No. etc. Only my leading articles, World Currents — World Organizations, published in August 22 and 23, 1917, in which I announced more than a year in advance all that had taken place on October 30, 1918, were published under the name Sziliczei.

From 1895 onwards, I devoted pretty much all my literary activity to the question of questions, the Jewish question. For example, in 1912, "Jewry and Society" was published in Brasov. my study, in which I recounted for two years the tragedy of Ferdinand Esther, the heir to the throne, which I also sent to my Majesty, who thanked me by the Obersthofmeistere of Von der Staaten in 1649 - I am reminded of the tragedy of Shakespeare's Cassandra. whose prophecies were not yet believed when they were all fulfilled.

Nor have I listed these data for any purpose other than just to prove that I am concerned with the Jewish question. My 28-year studies, writings, books, and thousands and thousands of sufferings and persecutions at the cost of repeatedly interrupting my career by Jews, destroying my entire career, have redeemed me the right to address today's most pressing issue of world history, Jewish world issues I can speak openly and emphatically.

Yes, I have seen traitors working in the dark under society since 1915. Those who negotiated and conspired with Transylvania, the Carpathians, Southern and Western Hungary and Budapest and its surroundings, today's Truncated Hungary, at a time when we were watching the constant success of the battlefields by straining our nerves and supporting the great defence of Central Europe with the hard work of the inner front.

The truths that now appear in public in this book to lead my Hungarian brothers to conviction and a correct view of the context of events have long been alive in my soul. 1920. III. On the 16th in Odorheiu Secuiesc, Gr. director and Rés János Ist. Bold. In the presence of my fellow priest, I gave a free presentation of these truths in a free lecture, for the first time during a relaxed conversation, and then, after my repatriation, I made them more widely public at home in the columns of “The People”.

My sad satisfaction is that my conclusions drawn from the context of the events have so far been fulfilled without exception. I am afraid that the deductions to be listed in this book will also be justified tomorrow, or the day after tomorrow.

I should only ask my readers to read the next few pages without bias, thinking, so that the truths laid out there become the blood and beliefs of our souls.

Last time I left, but it was not my most insignificant reason for revealing the truths in the end to the few lines we can read in the book of the prophet Ezekiel, Chapter 33, Verse 6:

“Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. But the people of Israel are not willing to listen to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for all the Israelites are hardened and obstinate. But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are. I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious people. And he said to me, “Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. Go now to your people in exile and speak to them. Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says,’ whether they listen or fail to listen.” - <https://biblehub.com/ezekiel/3-6.htm>

This speculator Gladius, tuleritque de eis animam, sanguinem populi de manu speculatoris exquiram I demand from his watchful hand.

It was not I who chose Christ, but Christ, my good Lord and God, who chose me to serve him as a Catholic priest I could not feel calm in the face of the responsibility of the sacred vocation entrusted to me, if I did not tell the light what he told me in the dark and whispered in my ear about the tops of the towers, the watchtowers.

Part I.

The role of Judaism in world politics.

The slavery of Europe between two Jewish powers.

All of today's state-building species have to reckon with that terrifying reality that for two thousand years a nation has lived on earth scattered among all the constituent species, and that it is also the most organized nation on earth in the scattering of the nation.

This nation, world Jewry, has resisted all assimilation, all assimilation for two thousand years, and has retained its complete racial and religious separation to this day. While the state-building races, especially in terms of religion, disintegrate, all people of the Jewish race are of the Jewish religion and all are of the Jewish religion and Jewish nationality at the same time. So it is the only nation on earth whose world history life in all its aspects and in all parts of the earth these two concepts: religion and nationality completely overlap and complement each other and which explain the secret not only of their separatism but also of their plans for world domination.

The hour of the first direct and public movement towards the realization of Jewish world domination for world Jewry during the last world war came when, after four years of desperate effort, the Masonic-led states were involved in the battlefield one by one and one after the other. It could not win the "world" war and shake the strong self-defence phalanx of the Central European states.

Then in the twenty-fourth hour of the utter exhaustion and despair the hour of world Jewry struck, then came the help of world Jewry, against the Central European states, systematically perpetrated by the Jewish plans of Northcliff and unparalleled in world history betrayed the final victory from the hands of the winners of the battlefield, the Central European states, and passed it into the hands of the winner of the battlefield, with the infernal calculation that, hiding behind the mantanza[Spanish: mass-killing] he will gain a base for his future world policy goals in a completely exhausted, almost utterly devastated man, France, from which he can move all the other lands out of his corners. This fragile France, pulled back from the edge of the vortex of shattering but can be shattered at any time by world Jewry because it was completely undermined by secret Jewish world organizations, then made France the arbiter of peace, this France where the Alliance Israelite and the Grand Orient has been completely captivated for a century and a half, where in the chair of the republic, after so many Freemasons, a Jew was born today: Millerand sits and where, with the help of [Perfidious] Albion, he has completely decomposed and obeyed himself for centuries, he was able to turn all the factors of political power into blind tools.

With this satanic manoeuvre, a relationship of devotion was established between world Jewry and France and the whole of Yantan, which has forever paralysed the freedom of determination and action of Yantan and stunned the peoples of those countries by the completely unexpected and improbable victory of the Masonic and Jewish statesmen of France, England and Italy, made him slaves to the most horrible absolute autocrat: World Jewry.

Today, these two names: ántán and World Jewry are completely synonymous. The name Amanth is only one of the pseudonyms of world Jewry in public.

It is no small fact or coincidence that today the governments of the two most extreme states in the great continent of Europe and Asia, France and Russia, have fallen into Jewish hands and thus this great continent has fallen between two legs of a horrible pliers.

Yet, while anywhere on earth, whether as a people's commissioner or a mini-president, a Jew is at the head of the state, there can be no peace and security for the state-building races for a moment. That Jew does not process himself out of vanity and the itch of appearance or performance into the head of the states, but that one Jew there on the throne represents the whole world Jewry and the whole Jewish world affair. They are stunningly purposeful and consistent from generation to generation. Their journey is from the Ghetto to the throne. From Celsius and the authors of the counter-gospels, through the Thirty Years' War, Cromwell, the French Revolution, and Napoleon, throughout the 19th and 20th century, all its revolutions and bloodbaths are marked only by the tombstones they have erected and behind which they have been able to hide with blindness so that even today one can hardly guess, that those great events in world history were precisely the indicators of the measure of the progress of Jewry towards the goals of world domination. Today, he hid behind the yanthan and linked his world-historical, actual, tangible interests to the vanity and apparent, ephemeral interests of the yanthan.

The states of the Extreme-Orient and the Extreme-Occident are headed by a Jew!

This is the real “Entente-Cordiale” between France and Russia.

At the head of Versailles, Trianon, and all peace were all the people of world Jewry who were either Jews themselves (Millerand, etc.) or Freemasons, who had been attached to world Jewry by the indestructible chains of sin and dark deeds for decades. (Clémenceau, agent and involuntary agent of the infamous Jews of Arton, Reinach, Sadoc-Khan, Yves-Guyot, etc.). The so-called supreme council of the Yantan, whose world-political judgments today weigh decisively on the fate of nations and the subdivision of lands, is made up entirely of Jews and Freemasons.

The planned alliance is nothing more than a Masonic areopag [the Apostle Paul only preached when at the Areopagus, a prominent rock outcropping located northwest of the Acropolis in Athens, Greece] by which world Jewry, even if it could not formally carry out its plans for unlimited world domination today, can essentially always force its will on all the subjugated peoples of the earth.

The March 21, 1921, issue of The Hidden Hand, The Official Gazette of the Awakening English, states the following facts of great interest: 1. President Woodrow Wilson's grandfather was still a Polish Jew. 2. Wilson's wife, is still a Jewish woman today. 3. U.S. Secretary of Defense Baker, a Jew of German descent, who only transgendered Backer's name. 4. The current Secretary of State, Bainbridge Colby, is a Jew named Colinski. 5. Daniels, U.S. Secretary of State, is of Jewish descent. 6. Wilson's secretary was Tumulty, and Lloyd George's secretary was Sir Sansoon, and Clémenceau's secretary was Mandel, also Jews. Yes, peace was made by Jews, alone and exclusively by Jews, just as it was at the time of the war.

What we have to say about the People's Alliance is evident from the relevant clauses in the peace treaties and the treaties that the dictates have made with the neutral states. The point of the points about Judaism is that the people's association apostrophizes Judaism everywhere as a separate nationality and, as such, places it under the protection of the people's association. The “Alliance Israelite” (World Federation of Jews) set up an office in Geneva under the General Secretariat of the League of Nations to monitor Jewish world affairs and protect the interests of Jewish national minorities. This office is in close contact with the "Jüdische Press Zentrale" (Jewish Press Centre) in Zurich, which conducts secret mine work throughout Europe to inform the press in order to be Jewish. Enough of the people's alliance itself, that its delegates include the Jews of Ashkenazi in Poland and Schantzer in Italy; at the General Secretariat in Geneva, which is the Ministry of the League of Nations and where the threads of the affairs of the League of People are intertwined, the head of the political department is Mantoux, a Jew from France. Paul Hymans, a Jew from Germany, is the president of the League of Nations. The head of the legal department is Hamel dr. Antwerp Jew, head of the health department Steegman dr. English Jew of German descent. The transport department is headed by Robert Haas, a Jew, while France is represented by Andree Weisz, Serbia by Captain Abrahamovich, Spain by Brockman, and even the Negro Republic of San Domingo is represented by an unadulterated Jew, Ruhnhardt. The fact that even the greyer gentlemen in the transport group are free of cross-water is the simple explanation that this department takes care of foreign loans and the Trade in Girls, which is the most indebted source of income for the world-seeking race.

The Zionist Israel Zangwill of London, in a moment of self-forgetfulness, publicly stated that the formation of the People's Alliance was an old desire and goal of world Jewry, a truth fully stated by the list given above. Is it any wonder that in the U.S. Senate, Senator Johnson, whom the Jews call "the satanic dog of California," pointed to the heart of the question:

"They want to force the United States to join the League of Nations because their rights would be left untouched. However, as soon as we enter, they are forced to add soldiers to the battles of the Jewish world goals that unite the states."

It is absolutely correct to say that 300 people are moving the peoples of Europe today and that these 300 people know each other very well. All are ruled by world Jewry and all are fraternised in the halls of the "Grand Orient".

Today the “Supreme Council”, tomorrow the “Council of Ambassadors”, the day after tomorrow the “Grand Orient”, then the “Elders of Zion”; yesterday “Trianon,” the day before yesterday James Schiff, Loeb, et al., once “little ántán,” another “III. Internationale” and the only driving force of this wonderfully multi-faceted society is one: world Jewry. The source of great consolation in today's dark and dim light is the reflection on the fact that Hungary lost its millennial borders when world power is in the hands of the 300 greatest evildoers in world history. Hungary will regain everything that has been kidnapped from it as soon as power on earth returns to the hands of honest people.

That Judaism is in the hands of the earth today, the leadership, and that the Jews are now planning and wanting something big, is evidenced by some striking details that no one in the world press has dealt with so far, but we cannot go silent. Isn't it striking that the folder of today's Europe, which is known to have been forced upon Europe by Western Jewry, leaves in exactly the same features that it was in the first century after Christ in the era of the greatest expansion of the Roman Empire?!

It was as if the two thousand-year-old existence of Christianity had been just a passing episode on the face of the earth. Or, as if it did not exist at all, and immediately after the fall of the Roman Empire, the Jewish world empire and the awakening of world Jewry would only come as a bad dream, so he wants to look back on these two millennia, giving back to Europe for a moment the leadership of the surviving Latin races,

And Europe had the same image it had when it dispersed the Jews. Anyone compare the map of the time of Christ with that of Versailles, Trianon, and so on gathered Jews and Jewish Heloths have now cut to Europe and you will stare over surprisingly identical lines and borders. Someone thinks that this does not serve symbolic purposes, when, after disregarding and trampling on all intermediate state rights and possessions, disregarding geographical and historical boundaries, Dacia, Sarmatia, Noricum, Illyricum, of course Germany, Pannonia, of course, are restored. Spain and Italy, which already existed, are affected only in so far as Pannonia is being pushed back into its old frame and to make the identity completely correct to the last line, they even make Germania Cisrenana, the present-day republic of the Rhine. So they give Europe back its image before Christianity to the last line!

Is it also inconceivable that the "Council of Ambassadors" considers disarmament, the forcing of general disarmament, to be the first priority of the "League of Nations" and other Jewish world institutions, and that this idea of disarmament collapses in Russia's enormous importance of step by step?

And if all states dismantle, will Russia dismantle it as well? Won't these wonderfully multi-name Jewish world institutions with Europe believe that Russia is constantly revolutionizing and that the disarming powers have no way of forcing Russia to disarm the same? And if Russia does not disarm, who will assure the disarmed and disarmed states that on that immeasurable Russian land, with those inexhaustible natural resources, with that gigantic human material, if world Jewry succeeds in consolidating the worst absolutism and bloodthirsty tyrannical against the helpless people, you can fully equip and lay a solid foundation politically: who can reassure all other states disarmed by Western Jewry that the Eastern exponents of this world Jewry will not equip and recover in an instant, there on the immeasurable Russian soil, 15 to 20 million soldiers with which at the other moment, extend their horrific rule to the entire disarmed and disarmed continent of Europe and Asia without any considerable resistance, erasing all traces and memories of Christianity from the representation of the world? Oh, all that happened in Russia in 1917 and since, and what Europe did not pay enough attention to in the midst of the horrors of world burning, appears today in its own terrifying world significance in the light of the analogous events that have taken place in Hungary since then and have so far failed! After that, it became evident that the whole so-called peace work is a dizzying creation of Western Jewry, for the benefit of the Eastern Jews, for the sake of Jewish world domination plans.

Yes. The whole frog is the work of Western Jewry, which, on the basis of Jewish world solidarity, with astonishing purposefulness and the elusive and almost miraculous blindness and indifference of the states concerned, has from the very beginning as a victim.

Today, all the provisions of Western Jewry that govern the fate of world politics today are based on the goals of Jewish world politics, which are constantly rooted in the East and have gained free air and unlimited effort and is accumulating confusion, confusing the whole of Central Europe to humiliating and unworkable demands, tearing up the millennial geographical and historical borders of Hungary, destroying the currencies of the states in order to achieve a threefold goal: at the head of the Zurich Bahnhof-strasse exchange Polish Jews and other Jewish exchanges are destroying the Central European currency to gradually and systematically completely destroy the purchasing power of paper money in order to reach a moment, as in Russia, Poland, Austria, and even in part in Hungary and Germany, and as it will come throughout Europe, as soon as the ore money will have purchasing power, gold and silver, which is now in the possession of the Jews in their entirety and in all the earth;

"Féodalité financière" financial slavery is the financial monopoly of the Jews, if, strategically and politically, Jewish world domination did not succeed as planned, at least financially, while the innervated, need-stricken, morally and materially exhausted, armed peoples are engaged in each other's troubles and are struggling with themselves, below let the Jews of Russia gain time, to establish themselves politically undisturbed and despise their feet there on immeasurable Russian soil, to finally consolidate their degrading and bloodthirsty dictatorship and to exterminate all of Russia (the aristocracy and the middle class), securing their power, let there be only two political factors that are at odds with each other: you are Jewish and musician, the lord and the slave, the bloodthirsty wolf, and the helpless lamb.

Part II.

And the fact that I draw to the attention of the general public in the following is a decisive proof of how carefully the Jews have been preparing everything for centuries for these decisive moments. We just have to look around, take a running look all over the world at the capitals of the states, their world situation, the composition, the spirit and the spiritual arrangement of their inhabitants, we can make sure that the capitals of the states were deliberately occupied by the Jews, they were arranged as Jewish bases of world domination, as bridgeheads, they were called world cities, filled with their own souls, transformed into their own image and likeness, so that today these capitals, without exception, are foreign members in the body of the country; on the healthy organism of the nation, indifferent, cosmopolitan, international, so Jewish. These are the bridgeheads of the Jewish world domination, where the spy reports of the tentacles (Jewish doctors, veterinarians, vagrants, etc.) located in the smallest villages of the country meet.

And what is most outrageous is that everything that is done in these world cities with their mobs (you, the mob of the educated classes: the Freemasons and the mob of the working class: the Social Democrats) is being waged, the revolutions, a country whose inhabitants do not have a single common thought, a single common heartbeat, and which often looks indifferently, often contemptuously, but always in disgust at what these capitals present. Paris, Budapest, St. Petersburg, Berlin, etc. today it is inhabited by a people of the same spiritual composition, only they speak another language.

These world cities, which have become Jewish strongholds and bridgeheads, are, of course, headed by Paris, which has been promoted by world Jewry as the "capital of the world" for centuries.

It is home to Alliance Israelite and Grand Orient. The "Lutetia Vindelicorum", founded by Julian Apostata, faithfully carries the shattering soul of its founder throughout world history and has become a corpus separatum on the body of France since 1789 and Napoleon. While the population of France is generally religious, patriotic and virtuous, Paris is anti-Christian, cosmopolitan, lush and immoral. Viktor Hugo is already pitting Paris against France when “1789. or the Civil War ”. in his novel I. K. On page 184, he writes, “What is the revolution? France 's victory over Europe and Paris victory over France ”.

Yes, it was pain, that France was conquered for the first time by Paris, the Jewish cosmopolis. Alexander Dumas has also recognized that the population of Paris is not French. But even he did not see clearly the composition of the population of Paris. He says of the people of Paris: human). The manifesto of the Prince of Braunschweig in 1792 directly demanded that Paris be wiped off the face of the earth. The same thing that Dumas said about the man in Paris can be said about the great average of the people of Budapest before the war, because God created the man from Budapest so that the stranger would not be informed about what the Hungarian man was like Budapest alone is responsible for all of today's troubles in Hungary. He alone did it on October 30, 1918, with complete indifference and even condemnation of the whole country. Only he, Mihály Károlyi, the most cynical and stupid traitor in world history, who was simply a puppet in the hands of the Jews and who soon played all political power in the hands of the exponents of world Jewry in Hungary. Budapest is a pathological change in the healthy strain of our country who, in his vanity, was simply a puppet in the hands of the Jews and who soon passed on all political power to the Hungarian exponents of world Jewry. Budapest is a pathological change in the healthy strain of our country who, in his vanity, was simply a puppet in the hands of the Jews and who soon passed on all political power to the Hungarian exponents of world Jewry. Budapest is a pathological change in the healthy strain of our country.

Oh, how happy all true Hungarians would give Budapest today in exchange for the territories we have lost!

This sick member, who, because of his geographical position, cannot be removed from the body of our country, must be healed at all costs; it must be returned to the Hungarian race, cleansed of its cosmopolitan filth and the leading Jewry.

Is it obvious why the centre of the Masonic lodges in Paris is called the “Grand Orient”, the “Great East”? And why have the terms “East” and “Orient” been so densely and conspicuously among the symbolic names of Masonic lodges throughout Western Europe for one and a half hundred years? Because, among the world’s plans for Jewish domination for one and a half hundred years, this “Eastern” ye Russia has been singled out to be that this vast empire, with its uncultured but inexhaustible human material, will one day be the base and starting point of Jewish world domination aspirations. What a slow and consistent, grinding, parasitic work it has been since Peter the Great! Of the 13 million registered Jews in the world, more than half: 6 million 8 hundred thousand Jews have invaded Russia, and this large Jewish population is without any constitutional or civil rights, repressed and despised, with incredible toughness and consistency passed down from generation to generation, he served the cause of Russia’s decomposition, the destruction of “nihilism,” and passed on to each other, through a series of political assassinations, the world political dreams of plenty of “pigra mass”. These dreams were put at the service of Russia, every living force, every statesman, every spirit of flame, or they were not allowed to come into effect if they did not stand in the service of Jewish world political plans consciously or unconsciously. Turgenev, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Gorky, with their disgruntled and unattainable contemplative heroes, who somehow all walked in the air and lost all contact with the earth, real life, and reality, unconsciously served this Jewish-world political goal, like Tchaikovsky and many others with their symphonies wandering into infinity and merging into nihil.

Ninety-tenths of the statesmen were Masons, playing balls for the “Grand Orient” in Paris. White was the most exalted, most distinctive, and most conscious of these among the Excellent Evildoers; most recently Sassonov and Suchomlinov, who, without the Tsar's knowledge, ordered the mobilization of the Russian army on July 30, 1914, and with this coup were the direct and sole perpetrators of World War II. Not them, but their secret whims and commanders: the Jewish lodges. During the war, all Jews who lived in the war area became spies on the enemy and traitors to Russia to facilitate the defeat of Russia now, just as they did in 1905 during the Russo-

Japanese War. Russia was defeated both times not by the enemy but by their own Jewry and lodges. When the battle was lost, the entire stockpile of ammunition and weapons of the demoralized army, together with its human material, fell into the hands of Russian Jewry, just like us, who were just as close behind the Jewish Kerenszky and his dreamy companions as we were later behind Károlyi and Hock. . We know the rest. With us and the Germans (Spartacus), the Jewish enterprise failed, in Russia it may have succeeded.

Centuries-old Jewish speculation about the great "East," the "Grand Orient," Russia is now being liquidated, settled and in all the lodges of the world, in these modern witch kitchens, in these moments the work of bricklayers is going on for the benefit of the great plastering, the world-historical enterprise of world Jewry in Russia.

Through the fog of endless Russian steppes sounds the desperate cry of help for the west of the subjugated Russian nation.

Europe did not listen and forcibly shut up its ears before the tsunami of the Tsarist family died, the cry of aid to the slaughtered nobles and middle-class people. Is everyone blind and everyone deaf in the West? And the more we head west, the more impenetrable this blindness and this deafness? In the East now, it is not the light that is born, but the furies of curse and damnation, revenge and bloodthirsty are holding their wedding there!

Either the whole of Europe will unite to find the means to sweep the parasites of Russia off the throne, or the idea of Jewish world domination will come true and woe to humanity a million times over.

There is no other unfoldment today: "Le jour de l'action est arrivé!" (The hour of action has struck!)

If Europe looks on with embraced hands, it will tolerate and allow this terrible goal to be achieved if Europe sees the XX. this world catastrophe of the first decades of the twentieth century, to which now I solemnly point you, as the phantom of Napoleon's world-conquering plans was seen as our ancestors lived a century earlier; if Europe does not find the means to thwart the Jewish aspirations for world domination that have entered a serious stage of realization, that is to say, if Europe does not learn from what has happened and is happening in Hungary today and if Europe does not realize it, if Europe does not decide to act quickly and energetically: then the first, decisive and final step on earth towards Jewish world domination has taken place!

It would be a great mistake for anyone to imagine that there was only one member of the scattered Jews scattered on English, French, or German soil, not to mention the Hungarian Jews who were disappointed in the hopes of the fall of Communism, who could be indifferent today with that huge as opposed to an enterprise that, taking root in Russia, brought the Jewish world domination to the forefront of dreams and desires.

And who would assume that there could be only one Jew on earth, all over the earth, who would not serve this great enterprise in every field at his disposal with all his might and who would not sacrifice all other interests and values to the profound problem of world historical significance which today incarnates in the name of two Jews, Lenin and Trotsky, and to which the fanatical Talmudists attribute the "messianic" significance:

nor would it have a faint idea of the gigantic political power rooted in societies and of the world factor that has so far proved omnipotent, which we call Jewish world solidarity.

Judaism has a self-awareness that it has stretched the strings all over the world to such an extent that it has put the world situation in all the states at the forefront and in the meantime, in the self-forgotten moments of his pathos, he dropped all his old masks so much that he no longer has the opportunity to retire; he sees the future clearly and knows that there is no choice for him but either absolute, decisive and final world domination, or the final and final expulsion from the educated world. And he is so cunning and intelligent that he will try his best and impossible to gain the first part of the alternative, world domination, at these crucial moments. Oh! even if humanity wants to escape the trap with intact skin in these terrifying moments, it must also try everything possible and impossible and act quickly and decisively!

Here is the moment and compulsion of the life-and-death struggle!

Le jour de l'action est arrivé!

Part III. The historical mission of Hungary

Either Judaism goes back to the catacombs through the ghetto or the state-building Christian species to date!

There is no other choice in this desperate era, there is no other unfolding from this horrible situation, no other awakening from this innervated, narcotic dream!

That such a hermetice of Judaism is able to exclude its antisocial plans from the attention of the general public and that so few are behind their world goals is not to be admired; believing that they have been wearing a mask for two thousand years and have always been able to hide their most specific political plans: step-by-step progress, hatred from generation to generation, behind the scenes of passwords and general interests; the world currents were always evoked by them and always initiated by them, which for centuries had always brought their ships closer to their destination. The international caravan was always in a straight line towards its world goals, and in order to divert its attention from itself, it always threw in the right moment to the blind and deaf crowd an audible password that that crowd had caught and quarrelled over it, and the international caravan went on and on... And now it came to the decisive moment. Then consider that the world-wide size of the world political plans of the Jews and the thousands of means used and mobilized to carry them out, it is really no wonder that the average poor human soul is struggling helplessly and helplessly!

After all this is considered, it stands out clearly and firmly in front of all thinking people

The historical mission of Hungary.

Hungary must lead a world movement in the last 24 hours of the world cataclysm calls on the world alliance of state-forming races and nations against the world Jewish organization, this great solidarity, which alone can fight the "League of Peoples", "People's Alliance," etc., now formed by the Jews under the false company of the World

Masonic Organization, behind and by which the interests of Jewish world politics would prevail.

The world union of Christian races and nations, as a political factor, should promptly establish a “sacred union” of all the nation-states of the world against the Jewish aspiration for world domination every Jew among the constituent races today is his agent, the spy of tomorrow, and the traitor of the race that hosts him.

If now, when the Trianon Jewish peace is not yet considered the “ultimatum” of material and moral plunder for Hungary and they want to torture our poor Hungarian nation with new clamping screws; if now, after our territorial integrity has been robbed, our constitutional and moral integrity has also been called into question: if Hungary, which is still a political factor and the only obstacle to the establishment of the Soviet republics in Europe today, were to send a proclamation directly to the Christian peoples and nations forming the state, with Hungary demonstrating its complete absence of international diplomacy, of course after the inevitable radical precautions, which, on the basis of the vanished truths and lessons of recent times, would point out in a determined, serious, and manly manner to the terrible danger of the threatening Jewish world domination and, in this connection, to the only causes of its destruction and fragmentation: this admirable exploration of historical compulsion and truth into the attention and sympathy of all the constituent peoples of the earth, all the more so because the word of Hungary would sound from the heights where Hungary fled from the flood does it threaten other Christian races and states as well?

Most of the time in history, the victory of the good comes from overcoming the bad, and Hungary has a mission in world history.

And the most determined, faithful, and self-sacrificing fulfilment of this mission, this vocation, can only restore the spiritual strength and millennial position of this glorious and apathetic nation in the future great balance of state-building species.

Fulfilling this historical mission, as the lens of the sun, will once again gather the millennial immanent national forces dormant in the soul of the Hungarians and thus engage Hungary in the universal great race for the spiritual, moral, material and national liberation and renewal of the Christian nations of the earth. We would fill the Christian rebirth, which had devalued into an empty slogan, with content, and would also dislodge our government from the stalemate where, in the absence of a worldview, its creative power was stalled; we will ascend to the sun's heights of the great tasks of our world-historical profession.

In Paris and London, only the white terror in Hungary and the other slanders of world Jewry against us are acknowledged today, and the results of our desolation and isolation are shown by the complete deterioration of our currency. Apart from those who watch our wrestling with pity, no one on earth today cares about us and our tragedy. The atmosphere abroad is even more hostile and unfavorable to us today than it was at the time of the peace talks, because not only does the uncompromising hatred of world Jewry, which is dead to us because of the fall of the proletarian dictatorship, but also to the Catholic strata of the West from U.S.

The "peccatum originale" of our situation is to be found in the fact that we failed to fully disarm our internal enemies when we could have done so in the applause of an honest Europe and instead we embarked on the path of recrimination with great vigor and great vehemence, and then in the general absence of the necessary worldview we once stopped and today we are neither cold nor hot, we are helplessly writhing in the tale of two hostile worldviews, unable to take the world-saving step that would turn our longing attention to world-Christianity. We had the strength and courage to take the initiative, born of the horrors of the past and the great straw flame of liberation; but we have neither the great concepts, nor the great statesmen, nor the great worldview, nor the convictions, perhaps even the determination, to move forward on the path we have begun.

We cannot commit ourselves to the determined disregard and ignorance of world Jewry, nor to the determined and consistent enlightenment of world Christianity, to which we have not only a right but certainly a divine mission, based on the great lessons of the terrible times we have experienced. We cannot see that we can only expect political rise and understanding support in this one direction.

While we balance on the tale of two worldviews in a life-and-death struggle until we are determined to take a definite line of positive progress, while our ridiculous and pathetic poses are flirting with Judaism as they seek mercy, so until we are fully immersed in divinity we will have neither inner nor outer peace.

Today, the whole Christianity of foreign states, equally crippled, narcotised and paralysed by inaction, expects redemption and refreshment from the rich and purposeful world of thought of the world movement to be launched by Hungary. The goals of this vital and life-based world movement as a positive policy are clear, simple and tangible, only the struggle for them must always move at moral heights. If world Jewry wants to crush and enslave a two-thousand-year-old culture, an age, and a world with dizziness, lies, and bloodthirsty hatred:

Based on the great lessons of the bloody times we have experienced, Hungary has a caring right and a mission to sober up, enlighten, save and set the direction for future progress in this age and this world for all times and for all nations, from the heights to which, I repeat, Hungary has fled the flood evoked by world Jewry and which threatens the same threats and swallowing of all other state-building species.

I see the situation that, driven by and intimidated by the fierce desire of Western Jews to confuse Central Europe, it will sooner or later come up with such demands on Hungary that, in defence of our purely national honour, all our self-discipline and self-defeat are stolen from us. In addition to we will be forced to step on the stage one day.

In any case, this crucial moment, if not first, will come when it comes to what position will Hungary take on the issue of general disarmament and disarmament? For if this disarmament were to be carried out and it would win the approval of all the powers, in addition to the approval of the "people's associations", the "people's leagues," so this would bind disarmed Hungary to its truncated figure forever and make it impossible for him to even regain what he had ever lost with his honest weapons!

In any case, Hungary must precede this in time, knowing that, apart from our immaculate national honour, we have little other power today.

Today, we must put this national honour, this spotless national self-consciousness, at the service of Hungary and the renaissance of humanity.

In the darkness and confusion in which humanity lives today, in this dark age of lying, dizziness, and loss of eyesight, the Hungarian national honour is a great light, but also a great burden; perhaps the same thing as the cross on the shoulders of our Lord Christ: and perhaps there is some probability in this comparison if Hungary, with its immaculate national honour, with its supreme pure national self-consciousness, with its millennial world-famous moral courage and determination against which all other weapons are courageous can be downplayed, would succeed redeem all other state-building species from the threatening Jewish world!

What happened in Hungary? How do what happened in Hungary get involved in the plans for Jewish world rule?

I still have to point out some moments of purely Hungarian relevance and make them subject to public consideration, which are closely related to today's diagnosis of the world situation, but which, to my knowledge, no one has dealt with before me, either at home or abroad.

Part IV.

It is an indisputable historical truth that at the end of October 1918, Hungary was destroyed by two huge tentacles of world Jewry: Freemasonry and Social Democracy. About everyone sees this circumstance this way; but few think of it the leading figures of the disturbances at that time: the standing Jewish chicken-catchers of Károlyi's back, the Jásziak and Kunfiak, the radical and Galileo Jews made a formal conspiracy with the Masonic folk tribunals of the nationalities, with whom the territorial integrity of Hungary was divided in advance: giving to the nationalities the parts that are still occupied today, and concluding an undisturbed "laissez faire" in the territory of Csonka-Hungary today, Jászi, Garami, or Béla Kun, or any other name " soi disant "rule or dictatorship. That this conspiracy really took place between the spies of the Jewish race in Hungary at that time and the tribunals of the nationalities and that one of the pivotal points of this conspiracy was the obligation to support each other proves:

1. the ceasefire treaty of Diaz-Weber, which ensured the territorial integrity of Hungary. This was communicated by the Army-Oberkommendo to the then Károlyi government. Nothing proves the secret pact between the Jews and the nationalities at that time more clearly than the fact that the so-called Károlyi government, whose Mephistopheles was constantly the traitor Jew Lajos Hatvani, who was released from responsibility in Hungary Diaz-Weber did not accept this treaty, which was based on ensuring our integrity, because they were already working in the Red Jewish dictatorship, Mephistopheles, a Jew, shot down the accused Charles in Belgrade to a French soldier named Franchet d 'Esperay, who on the battlefield could not gain glory from the difference of his nation with traitors. This, seeing Károlyi and the surrounding canine-eared and curved-footed, goose-footed canal fillings, and concluding from this that everything had broken up and sank into the canals, marked the demarcation line of Clémenceau, the result of which is today's Truncated Hungary. Who this Clémenceau is, with some vivid features, in a real French newspaper, Eduard Drumont, in the Libre Parole as early as 1899. II. On the 19th (No. 2497, the original of which is available for inspection by anyone) as Reinach, Zadoc-Khan, Arton, Yves-Guyot, and the agent and involuntary means of the other trafficked Jews in France; François Coppée, the immortal poet and the flaming French patriot, at one of the sittings of the 'Ligue de la patrie française' he apostrophizes this vile, Masonic idol by:

"Man of Loubet Clémenceau and the other enemies of the French homeland!"

What is more natural, then, is that Clémenceau was the tool of the Jews, when Hungary was circused and circumcised into a Jewish country, such a rotten French available for everything, was the shrine of the Jews!

Well, this is the famous Clémenceau line, the ritual engraving, which was performed in Hungary in the Talmudic spirit!

Apart from the secret pact, there is another explanation for the fact that the cowardly Czechs were handed over to small Hungarians by small volunteer teams, students, some Igloo hero machine gunners everywhere, Transylvania, as we will see below, with 10,000,000 crowns and 55,000 infantry weapons and component ammunition and cannons, handed over machine guns to the Oláhs, was handed directly to the Oláhs by Károlyi's Jews, the Linder Jew.

2. The December 1, 1918 issue of the newspaper "Pest Hírlap", which brings out the communiqué (on December 1, when the Oláhs in Arad and Gyulafehérvár had already announced their accession to Romania !!) that "the organization of the Romanian National Guard unfortunately, it is not going as fast as said Major Alexander Vlad, an Oláh conspirator in Arad, as we would have liked. We want to organize the guard only for the sake of public order (!!). We asked the government for 10 million crowns and 55,000 infantry weapons to set up the guard. I only received a telegram yesterday for the Hungarian Minister of Defence to hand over the requested amount and weapon; The Ministry of Defence also announced that a total of six divisions would be set up in Hungary, of which two would be transferred to us. Thus, approx. We will have 60,000 people at our disposal when the organization is completely completed. Of course, these two divisions will also be equipped with (!!) artillery. The big question is when we can end this difficult organization. The work of the organization does not pause for a moment. We are setting up the county centre of the guard at the headquarters of all the counties in the Romanian-inhabited area, and there are currently about 8,000-10,000 guards in arms in Transylvania and the Romanian-inhabited areas. I am convinced that it is quite enough to arm 20,000 people to maintain order. ” - From which it is obvious that the anti-militarist atmosphere they evoked was used only by the conspirators to seize the Zionist Jews and the “guards” of the nationalities with the weapons thrown in good faith by the naive Hungarian soldiers, and the work of the organization does not pause for a moment. We are setting up the county centre of the guard at the headquarters of all the counties in the Romanian-inhabited area, and there are currently about 8,000-10,000 guards in arms in Transylvania and the Romanian-inhabited areas. forming Hungarian race to remain unarmed and defenceless; they armed 10,000 Jews (the seed of the later Red Army) and gave ten million crowns 55,000 infantry and cannon machine guns to the Oláhs to occupy Transylvania, confiscating all the weapons of the inhabitants of the Hungarian villages and towns on their way; a country that has been torn apart by your own money, your own weapons and your own consent! There is no bloodthirsty conspiracy in this world history.

3. The newspaper "Sun" Nov. 1918 No. 6, entitled "Zionist Guard Goes to the Countryside," the introductory lines of which are as follows: founded it. The guard already has thousands of members and the Minister of War has put the prospect of providing them with a barracks, etc. "

4. The same issue of the Pesti Hírlap (December 1, 1918) on the next page brings the communiqué that it was the very first thing of the "Hungarian" government to send two committees to Russia for "our prisoners of war", which means that for Béla Kun and for other propagandists in 32 Bolshevik schools in Russia: "Two committees are going to Russia for our prisoners of war. A meeting was held at the Ministry of Defense on Saturday on the repatriation of prisoners still in Russia. The conference decided to send two committees to Russia. One to European Russia and the other via America and Wladiwost to Siberia. As the Hungarian prisoners in the Siberian prison camps are not segregated according to nationality, the Hungarian government wants to act in agreement with the states emerging in the territory of the former Monarchy, and so on. "So the conspirators of the Hungarian state at that time already on December 1, 1918, as a completed fact, handed over the utopia of the states emerging in the territory of the former monarchy today!! This term, in this form, probably first appeared in public in this Jewish newspaper written in Hungarian!

5. The fact that immediately after the Károlyi revolution the program of the whole present state lived in the soul of the Hungarian group of conspirators, and even more than what has since been partially realized and partly failed, is irrefutably proved by the speech published in the Budapest newspaper of November 14, 1918, which on November 13, 1918, Oszkár Jászi addressed him to the Oláh tribunals in Arad.

The concluding lines of this speech include the following remarkable statements scattered! "The peace treaty that will come is not in the hands of Foch and the other generals who, as we have just seen in Belgrade, are no different from the swordsmen of Hindenburg and Ludendorfs, but the Soviet workers and soldiers will make peace. The promises made by some powers to Czech and other imperialisms will not be heeded by this European Soviet republic. Another sign of this future trend is that just yesterday the Hungarian government accredited the representative of Rakovski, who knows the situation in Romania and Romanianness in Hungary, as the ambassador of the Russian Soviet Republic to Hungary. These will decide peace and not the sword-wielding imperialists, etc. "

This is the "European Soviet Republic" that the Jewish Oszkár Jászi is talking about here, it failed in the healthy political sense of the Hungarian race in the first days of August 1919!

Hinc illae lacrimae!! That's why Hungary cut it up! That is why there was a ruthless world Jewish peace in Trianon! Because Hungary has thwarted alone, and even today only Hungary is thwarting the pink dream of the Jászioscars of the "European Soviet Republic", that is, of the European Jewish world empire!

All that is needed is an in-depth look at the depraved internal affairs of the so-called successor states, the dependent situation they have found with their own revolutionary Jews, the helplessness they are forced to witness against this scum of humanity: and no one will consider my paradox that with his provocative political acumen and unspoiled social sense, Hungary will not sweep away the invading living people from the government in the first days of August 1919 and will not restore the rule of the state-forming race in Truncated Hungary: today the European Soviet Republic would really dictate peace, the peace of death from which there would be no more resurrection, and perhaps the hooves of the horses of the Soviet soldiers would beat the tranquillity of the boulevards of Paris and the City of London today!

If we add to the above that in the final days of the collapsed proletarian dictatorship in Hungary, the outbreak of a unified and healthy moral reaction of the Hungarian people against the Jewish race was prevented by the Oláh occupation alone, especially in Budapest. would have happened; if we consider that this Oláh occupation lasted throughout Truncated Hungary and lasted only until the rightful wrath of the people against Judaism came to a boil; if we also consider that the Jews wanted to maintain the Oláh occupation in Budapest ad graecas calendas, as evidenced by the 10,000 signed petitions and thousands of other phenomena; if we think about it, that the Jews compromised by the proletarian dictatorship fled the deserved punishment during the occupation and under the cover of the occupiers, and without exception were found in the so-called successor states to be welcomed with open arms, as e.g. Oszkár Jászi and his Jewish chicken-catching companions are still in Oláharia today, and Károlyi and his bandits, after years in the Czech Republic, now enjoy the hospitality of Serbia; if we finally consider that there are no Jews at all among those deported from the occupied territories and the inhabitants of the wagons, while it is common knowledge that a disproportionate percentage of those surrendered in the occupied territories are Hungarian-speaking and, in pain, Hungarian-born Jews and baptized Jews in the first moment they took an oath of allegiance to the occupiers and today the greater Czechs, Olahs, Serbs, etc. as the occupiers themselves: we will only be strengthened by our strong conviction, which, with a little more careful examination and investigation, will surely gain a historical, pragmatic conclusion later that in Hungary, the radical and Masonic Jews behind Károlyi made a formal conspiracy with the Masonic popular tribunals of the nationalities to overthrow the Hungarian state and divide the territory of Hungary by evading the disturbances of the war and the attention of the Hungarian race on the battlefields and exploiting the horrific situation.

Part V. Concluding remarks.

At the time of writing these lines, the fate of Hungary, anaesthetized and amputated to insensitivity by decades of slow and consistent satanic work, hovered before my eyes, the poorly doomed Hungary, paralysed and bound by secret world organizations gaining exclusive possession of power all over the world. to the chains of the Masonic lodges and Jewish stock exchanges of the whole world, that he cannot hope for his rebirth, - pain, - neither from his own strength nor from any other balance in the distribution of forces today. So there is no ray of hope? In me, the fanatical belief that there is a way to unfold and be reborn has grown into a steel hard:

if Hungary fits into the great harmony with which the secret hand controlling our destiny governs the destiny of universal humanity.

I have a strong belief in that he can hope for the rebirth and reintegration of Hungary only from the self-sacrificing, faithful and consistent fulfilment of his world-historical mission clearly marked for him by divine Providence. Everything else is just groping, senseless and pathetic writhing between waves and currents that we cannot overcome because we do not know the evocative forces or the composition of these forces.

What is Hungary's mission in world history? There is nothing more obvious or clearer and simpler than the answer to this big question. Hungary's mission became apparent in the solemn and critical moments when the horrific plan of the "European Soviet republics" suffered a fatal shipwreck in the first days of August 1919 due to the clairvoyance and healthy political sense of the Hungarian race. When neither the 1918 Károlyi coup d'état nor the proletarian dictatorship organized according to the Talmudic morality gained the final leading role and hegemony of the Hungarian exponents of world Jewry, and when the it has become an indisputable historical truth that Bolshevism is not a scientific, not a sociological, not even an economic issue, but together with Freemasonry and Social Democracy, of which Bolshevism is only the culmination and ultimate goal, is simply and exclusively a Jewish question of world domination.

In the first days of August 1919, before all the constituent races, the undoubted clarity of historical truth was the fact that the world Jewry hidden by Bolshevism behind Freemasonry and social democracy wanted to bring Russia to the fate of Russia than Russia. So when Hungary shook off the stifling world octopus, the tentacles of world Jewry, and for the time being, state power returned to the hands of the state-forming Hungarian race:

Hungary has won a historic mission to start a world movement from Hungary that will save the other state-building Christian species; to unite the world movement that united in Hungary, for the time being, but united over Russia and against the horrific aspirations of Jewish world domination that constantly threatened the whole world, to unite all the nation-building nations of the earth.

Judaism is a world power: so the alliance to be organized to break his world rule must also be a world alliance. Until this idea becomes a government program until it permeates every member of the state-forming Hungarian race, until the consciousness of this mission passes into the bloodstream of every Hungarian, there will be neither external nor internal peace and irresistibility, we rush unabashedly back into the tentacles of the Jewish world octopus, dragging all the nation-building Christian nations of the world with us.

I consider it superfluous to emphasize and prove in detail that the idea of Jewish world domination was the first driving force and the nucleus of crystallization in the whole so-called world war, the mysterious expansion of the space and time of war, and this nucleus of crystallization, of the terrible labour, chaos, and all mystery of the transition from war to peace today, so much so that whoever disconnects the aspirations of Jewish world domination from the logic of today's world political events and sees them not as a living reality, but as a phantasmagoria of political nightmares, deliberately throws away a single sure thread out of all the maze and turmoil of today.

Today we are too late to take preventive action against the Jews, who are distributed among all the peoples of the whole earth, in all parts of the earth today they serve the same purpose by the same means; who poisoned all the sources of power with their money, and with their press they pestilized the spiritual and moral atmosphere of the whole earth, who nurtured the same solidarity with the state-building races everywhere, the same hatred and contempt for the same purpose, and all for the same purpose. and determined soldiers and, if necessary, martyrs of the great Jewish worldview living in convictions. Their army, their front-runners in public, are all the dissatisfied of the land, the mob that can be bought by the upper strata of society: the mob in the Masonic lodges and the mob in the social democratic organizations. These two mobs, which were attached to the triumphal chariot of thousands of material and individual interests by world Jewry, his two tentacles at the same time groping on the surface of the sea of life, and in the depths lies the abominable reptile, the eyes and the ears secret beacons.

From this mob he selects for centuries the most suitable figures for his purposes, endowed with the most attractive intellectual and external possessions, but with the least moral resilience, those unfortunate, omnipresent celebrated and notorious evildoers who serve the purpose of Jewish world politics. , neither God, nor family, nor conscience, nor law, nor honour, nor even honour, but at most the appearance of all these. The applause of individual success, selfishness, and lodges are the driving forces that compensate them for everything, for a minister or president of the republic, for all this nothingness, they cast their souls in the hungry mouth of the Jewish Moloch for their peace, eternal hope, their free will, better conviction the whole harmony of their souls.

World Jewry needed half a century of pre-World War II peace to smuggle all the power it had access to in every state of the earth, before this great enterprise, into the hands of these involuntary Jewish slaves, these "statesman-villains."

At the moment of the outbreak of the war, the honest souls who wanted to prevent the war in any case, or at least to limit it to a narrow space and for a short time, became disembodied against the Freemasonry statesmen, the Sassonovs, the Poincares, and the Lord Gray. Indeed, world Jewry, with its international organizations, has become the pathogen in the living organism of state-building species that alone causes all life-altering changes, without the recognition of which the healing of states and societies is unthinkable today.

There is no more important world interest for all mankind today than to be liberated and snatched from the misleading people of the misguided people everywhere on the basis of the lessons of the world historical tragedy in Hungary, and to expose it to lies, dizziness, loss of eyesight, whose match we seek in vain in all the history of the world, and who will be paralysed forever in the name of the people, forced into a vehicle and sunk into a more shameful serfdom than any slavery the nation-states.

Today, Hungary is just as obsessed with the Jews as Transylvania is for the Oláhs or the Tatra for the Czechs.

We must help and, above all, help in this morally and politically untenable situation!
